

LICENCE TERMS FOR FINE-TUNING AN INTERNAL AI PROGRAM

COMPANIES AND OTHER ORGANISATIONS

Valid until further notice from 1 January 2026 onwards

If you work in a company or other organisation, you may copy works and publications in accordance with these licence terms to fine-tune an AI program inside your organisation. This licence is not for training, developing, or fine-tuning AI programs used outside the organisation.

You may only make copies and use them under this licence if your organisation has obtained this additional licence and holds a valid copying licence for companies and other organisations. Confirm with your organisation or Kopioisto whether your organisation holds both licences.

Kopioisto is the most extensive copyright organisation representing the creative industry in Finland. We make the use of creative works effortless and ensure that creative professionals and copyright holders receive the appropriate remuneration when their works are used. Kopioisto's member organisations are listed on the Kopioisto website.

1. KEY CONCEPTS

COPYRIGHT HOLDER

A copyright holder is the original author of the work or the party to whom the author has either fully or partially transferred their copyright, such as a publisher.

WORK AND PUBLICATION

In these licence terms, work means

- literary, illustrative, and other visual works protected by the Copyright Act – for example a journal article and its accompanying illustrations
- graphic representations of musical works, such as sheet music and song lyrics
- photographs
- any parts of these works.

Publication means a publication in either print or digital format—for example, a book, research report, or newspaper/magazine publication.

COPYING

In these licence terms, copying means making full or partial copies of a work or publication.

This includes photocopying, printing, or scanning to the extent allowed under the licence, as well as digital copying, such as

- copying an image or text from a website
- taking a screenshot
- downloading and/or saving a PDF file
- photographing pages of publications.

2. WHAT AM I ALLOWED TO COPY?

2.1 You may make copies

- of individual works or publications for fine-tuning your organisation's internal AI programme according to Section 3.2
- if the works or publications are not subject to any of the prohibitions or restrictions mentioned in these terms.

This licence allows you to make copies from the following sources:

- original publications such as books, magazines, or sheet music
- works, such as images or texts, that have been published on the internet with the copyright holder's consent
- e-books to which you have contractual or subscription-based access.

2.2 You may not make copies of

- learning materials
- scripts of plays
- comics originally published somewhere other than Finland
- collections of cultural heritage institutions
- research reports or similar publications
- materials used under a separate agreement or licence, such as
 - newspaper and magazine materials behind a paywall
 - digital standards
 - content available on the SFS Online or Rakennustieto digital services
- works created by private individuals and shared by them on social media, discussion forums, blogs, or image-sharing services
- images sold separately from an article or other publication by photo agencies and similar organisations
- works or publications excluded from Kopioisto's licence at the copyright holder's request.
See the list at www.kopioisto.fi/en/kopioisto/copying-prohibitions.

The copying licence does not apply to

- audiovisual works, such as TV programmes, films, or other videos
- audio recordings, such as music recordings, radio programmes, or audiobooks
- computer software and games
- databases and catalogues, such as notification services or statistical databases
- works that may be used under a Creative Commons (CC) licence or similar open licence.

With this licence, you may not

- collect or store works using web scraping or similar data harvesting methods
- use datasets compiled by a third party for fine-tuning.

3. IN WHAT WAYS MAY COPIES BE USED?

3.1 Concepts used in Section 3

An AI program internally used by an organisation means an AI bot, agent, or similar AI application that is used only within your organisation and only by its staff.

Internal use means administrative use within an organisation, such as internal

- preparation
- communication
- training
- research

This includes other activities internal to the organisation similar to those mentioned above..

Fine-tuning means improving or adapting a pre-trained AI program or its model to meet your organisation's needs by training the model or program with the materials permitted under this licence.

3.2 You may

copy a work or publication, in full or in part, to the extent necessary for the intended purpose, and use the copy to fine-tune an AI program intended for your organisation's internal use, when

- your organisation has lawful access to the work or publication to be copied through a subscription, agreement, or acquisition; and
- the fine-tuned AI program is only used internally within your organisation.

3.3 You may not

- use copies, in full or in part, for
 - text and data mining
 - developing, training, fine-tuning, or enriching any program, application, algorithm, or tool based on machine learning, language models, or other similar AI technology, other than an AI program intended specifically for internal use within your organization
 - developing, training, fine-tuning, or enriching programs, applications, algorithms, or tools that you use to reproduce the style, appearance, or manner of expression of an original work or publication
- remove or change the metadata of a work or photograph
- transfer or make available to any third parties an AI program fine-tuned under this license, either as-is or as part of a product or service distributed outside your organisation, regardless of whether the product or service is offered for a fee or free of charge, except in the case of a transfer of business.

4. VALIDITY AND TERMINATION OF THE LICENCE

- This additional licence is valid only while your organisation holds a copying licence for companies and other organisations. If your organisation terminates the copying licence, this additional licence will also automatically expire.
- Your organisation must maintain this licence for as long as any material copied under it is used to fine-tune an AI program, or any AI program fine-tuned under this licence is used within your organisation. Kopioisto may require a commitment from your organisation not to use the AI program fine-tuned under this licence after the licence expires.
- If you copy or use works in violation of these or the copying licence terms, Kopioisto may terminate your organisation's copying licence and/or this additional licence with immediate effect.

5. REPORTING TRAINING MATERIALS

You must report any training materials you used to Kopioisto by email to raportointi@kopiosto.fi, including a list or a sufficiently detailed summary of the materials copied, indicating their type and quantity.
